CHARLOTTE'S WEB

Based on the Book By: E.B. White

Adapted By: Joseph Robinette

Friday, April 11, 2025 @ 7pm

Saturday, April 12, 2025 @ 2pm & 7pm

POSSIBLE 10AM Daytime Performances: Wednesday, April 09, Thursday, April 10, Friday, April 11

"No one had ever had such a friend—so affectionate, so loyal, and so skillful."

Charlotte's Web is based on E.B. White's loving story of the friendship between a pig named Wilbur and a little gray spider named Charlotte. Wilbur has a problem: how to avoid winding up as pork chops! Charlotte, a fine writer and true friend, hits on a plan to fool Farmer Zuckerman. She will create a "miracle." Spinning the words "Some Pig" in her web, Charlotte weaves a solution which not only makes Wilbur a prize pig but also ensures his place on the farm forever. It's the beginning of a victorious campaign which ultimately ends with the now-safe Wilbur doing what is most important to Charlotte.

The Children's Literature Association named this "the best American children's book of the past two hundred years," and Joseph Robinette, working with the advice of E.B. White, has created a play that captures this work in a thrilling and utterly practical theatrical presentation.

STEEL MAGNOLIAS

By Robert Harling

Thursday, July 10, Friday, July 11, and Saturday, July 12, 2025 @ 7pm

Sunday, July 13, 2025 @ 2pm

“I would rather have 30 minutes of wonderful than a lifetime of nothing special.”

Truvy’s salon in Chinquapin, Louisiana, is a gathering place and sanctuary for a close knit group of women from the neighborhood. Recently widowed Clairee is adjusting to life without her husband, who was the town’s former mayor. Ouiser, a wealthy curmudgeon, finds any excuse to bicker and complain. Truvy has hired young Annelle just in time to get Shelby and her mother, M’Lynn, ready for Shelby’s wedding later that day, and the women’s excitement fills the beauty shop with gossip, warmth and familiarity.

When the normally friendly Shelby suddenly becomes cranky, everyone realizes her blood sugar has dropped, and the women fuss over her and give her juice until she’s recovered. Shelby’s health is fragile because she’s diabetic, which makes M’Lynn worry about her daughter’s choices and the physical toll Shelby’s body may not be able to bear.

Over the next few years, as Clairee fills the void left by her husband’s death, Annelle embraces life in Chinquapin and Ouiser strikes up a new friendship, Truvy’s salon remains at the center of their lives and becomes an oasis when tragedy strikes.

IT'S A WONDERFUL LIFE: THE MUSICAL

Book and Lyrics by Keith Ferguson

Music by Bruce Greer

Friday, December 05 & Saturday, December 06, 2025 @ 7pm

Saturday, December 06 & Sunday, December 07, 2025 @ 2pm

“Each man's life touches so many other lives. When he isn't around he leaves an awful hole, doesn't he?”

What kind of an impact does a single person have on humanity? Based on the beloved 1946 film, this musical faithfully follows George Bailey's life from his childhood dreams to his midlife disappointments and beyond, as we all take a journey to discover whether his life has mattered at all, all while his guardian angel, Clarence, who must restore George's faith in himself to earn his wings.

Cinematically scored and theatrically staged, this adaptation breathes musical life into a familiar story, while retaining the warmth, humor, and pathos of the original. A new holiday classic for devotees and newcomers alike.

Ticket Price - $15.00 [Adults] & $8.00 [Children 13 & under]
